The MARYLAND GAZETTE.

[XIXth Year.] THURSDAY, February 23, 1764. [N°. 981.]

FROM THE WHIM. N° [illegible].

MR. DRYDEN happening to paſs an Evening in Company with the Duke of Buckingham, the Earl of Rocheſter, Lord Dorſet, and ſome others of the firſt Diſtinction and Reputation for Genius, the Converſation turned upon literary Subjects; ſuch as the Fineneſs of Compoſition, the Harmony of Numbers, the Beauties of Invention, the Smoothneſs and Elegance of Stile, &c. &c. After ſome Debate, it was finally agreed, that each Perſon preſent ſhould write ſomething upon whatever Subject chanced to ſtrike the Imagination, and place it under the Candleſtick. Mr. Dryden was excepted againſt in every reſpect, but as a Judge of the Whole. Of Courſe that Office was aſſigned him. Some of the Company were at more than ordinary Pains to out rival the others; the Man moſt tranquil and unconcerned was Lord Dorſet; who, with much Eaſe and Compoſure very cooly wrote two or three Lines, and careleſly threw them into the Place agreed upon; and when the Reſt had done ſo by theirs, the Arbiter opened the Leaves of their Deſtiny. In going through the Whole, he diſcovered ſtrong Marks of Pleaſure and Satiſfaction; but at one in particular he diſplayed the moſt boundleſs Rapture. I muſt acknowledge, ſays Dryden, that there are Abundance of fine Things in my Hands, and ſuch as do Honour to the Perſonages who wrote them; but I am under an indiſpenſable Neceſſity of giving the higheſt Preference to Lord Dorſet. I muſt requeſt you will hear it yourſelves Gentlemen, and I believe each, and every one of you, will approve my Judgment.

I Promiſe to Pay to JOHN DRYDEN, Eſq; or Order, on Demand, the Sum of Five Hundred Pounds.

DORSET.

I muſt confeſs (continued Dryden) that I am equally charmed with the Stile and the Subject; and I flatter myſelf, Gentlemen, that I ſtand in need of no Arguments to induce you to join with me in Opinion, even againſt yourſelves. This Kind of Writing exceeds any I have ſeen, either Ancient or Modern, it is not only the Eſſence but the Quinteſſence of Language; and is, in Fact, Reaſon and Argument ſurpaſſing every Thing. The Company all readily concurred with the Bard, and each Perſon preſent was forward to expreſs a due Admiration of his Lordſhip's Penetration, ſolid Judgment, and ſuperior Abilities, with which, it is probable, Mr. Dryden, that great Judge upon ſuch Occaſions, was ſtill more thoroughly touched than any of the Company.

The following Method of deſtroying Caterpillars on Trees, taken from the Gentleman's Magazine for June, as it has been tried with Succeſs, is inſerted for the Benefit of the Public.

TAKE lighted Charcoal in a Chafing Diſh, and throw thereon ſome Pinches of Brimſtone in Powder, place the ſame under the Branches that are loaded with Caterpillars.——The Vapour of the Sulphur, which is mortal to thoſe Inſects, will not only deſtroy all that are on the Tree, but prevent it being infeſted by them afterwards.——A Pound of Sulphur will clear as many Trees as grow on ſeveral Acres.

DOMINICA, November 2.

To all Merchants or Maſters of Veſſels navigating to or from any of the Britiſh Colonies to the Caribbee Iſlands.

THE critical Situation of Dominica between the two French Colonies of Guadaloupe and Martinico, expoſing that Iſland to all the Rigours of the French King's Letters Patent of October 1727, By which all foreign Ships and Veſſels were made liable to be ſeized and confiſcated for navigating within a League of their Coaſt; Whereby the Trade of his Majeſty's Subjects in general might be greatly obſtructed, and this Colony particularly diſtreſſed; Brigadier General [illegible] thought it indiſpenſably his Duty to repreſent to the French Governors of the ſaid Colonies the inconveniences of putting the ſaid Letters Patent rigorouſly in Force; and to propoſe a Suſpenſion of that Part of them which expoſed all Britiſh Veſſels to be ſeized and confiſcated, by approaching within the preſcribed Diſtance (which muſt be often neceſſary to enable them to make out their Voyages to the ſeveral Iſlands, now intermixed with the French Colonies) till freſh Orders and Inſtructions relative to that Head might be received from our reſpective Courts; to which the General and Intendant of Martinico have aſſented by their publick Letter of the 1ſt of September, and thoſe of Guadaloupe by Monſieur de Bourlamaque's Letter of the 17th of October.

"Provided always, That none of our Veſſels ſhould Anchor, or attempt to Anchor, in any of their Outbays; in which caſe the ſaid Veſſels would be ſtill liable to all the Rigours of the Letters Patent." But in caſe of Diſtreſs at Sea, they might put into the Ports of St. Pierre, Fort Royal, and Trinity, of Martinico, and thoſe of Baſſeterre and Point Peter of Guadaloupe.

Head Quarters, Roſeau, October 24, 1763.

CHARLES-TOWN (SOUTH-CAROLINA) Jan. 4.

This Day the General Aſſembly of this Province met here, in Obedience to the Governor's Proclamation, when his Excellency delivered the following SPEECH, to both Houſes.

Honourable Gentlemen,

Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the Commons Houſe of Aſſembly,

WITHOUT obſerving To-day upon the Buſineſs of various Sorts, which will deſerve your ſerious Attention, the melancholy Incident which I ſhall immediately make you acquainted with, will ſufficiently juſtify my calling you ſo ſuddenly together. On the 24th of laſt Month, a Party of Creek Indians murdered fourteen Perſons in the Long-Canes Settlement; an Outrage of this Sort, ſo ſoon after the King's Forgiveneſs of all former Offences was ſolemnly declared to them, and every Means uſed to remove their Jealouſies, and to conciliate their Good Will, is too plain a Proof, I am afraid, that they are not to be reclaimed by good Offices, that they diſdain your proffered Friendſhip, and are really dangerous and inveterate Enemies; as ſuch they muſt be treated, and as ſuch guarded againſt. The Conſternation and real Diſtreſs which the poor unhappy back Settlers are thrown into, reduced to abandon their All, or loſe their Lives, will, I am perſuaded, excite your Compaſſion, and procure them Relief. It would be an Inſult to your Humanity to doubt it, and additional Miſery, if poſſible, to them to be diſappointed. I will lay Copies of the Information brought me before you, and then rely on your taking ſuch Meaſures as a Love of your Country, and a Tenderneſs for your Fellow Creatures, muſt dictate. Such Aſſiſtance as I could furniſh independent of you is already ordered. When you, Gentlemen of the Commons Houſe of Aſſembly, are deliberating upon this unhappy Affair, it will be by no Means foreign from the Subject to conſider how the Poſts on the Frontiers are circumſtanced. Auguſta, which is garriſoned by Troops from this Province, is in Ruins; Fort Moore is repaired indeed, but [illegible] not a Gun mounted, nor a Gun Carriage belonging to it; nor am I able to convey to either a Barrel of Powder, unleſs I apply the poor Remains of contingent Money to this Service. [illegible] Fort Prince George much [illegible] ſupplied, and [illegible] the Courage [illegible]

[illegible], Gentlemen, I have [illegible] Matters are, and have carefully avoided [illegible] the Defects of the Frontiers by [illegible] Deſcriptions. [illegible]

Before I conclude, I muſt acquaint you, that in Conſequence of Repreſentations made to the King, his Majeſty has thought proper to order me to appoint Commiſſioners to run a temporary Line of Juriſdiction, in Concert with North-Carolina Commiſſioners. Governor Dobbs and I have agreed, that they ſhall begin the Firſt of March, and I now apply to you, Gentlemen of the Commons Houſe of Aſſembly, to enable me to carry the King's Commands into Execution.

THOMAS BOONE.

A great Number of Settlers from the Northward, have come by Land into the Weſtern Parts of this Province during ſeveral Months paſt. On the 26th ult. a Number of thoſe Settlers, with four Waggons, arrived at Hard-Labour, where they reſolved to remain till they heard what was to be done concerning the Murders committed by the Creek Indians.

PROVIDENCE, January 14.

The many Difficulties and Hardſhips which the Trade of the Northern Colonies is at preſent burthened with, by the ſeveral ſevere Reſtrictions, Prohibitions, &c. it is thought will excite the Attention of the Legiſlature of the different Governments reſpectively, and that proper Repreſentations will ſoon be tranſmitted Home to the Lords of Trade and Plantations, for the Removal or Mitigation of the Grievances impoſed on ſo loyal a Part of His Majeſty's Dominions.

We hear that the Hon. STEPHEN HOPKINS, Eſq; our Governor, has iſſued out Warrants for calling the General Aſſembly, to meet at South-Kingſtown on Tueſday the 24th Inſtant, in Conſequence of a Petition from a conſiderable Number of Merchants of this Colony, who have a Remonſtrance, with ſundry important Matters, to lay before the Houſe, reſpecting the Reſtrictions on the Plantation Trade.

BOSTON, January 16.

Extract of a Letter from Barbados.

"There never was greater Plenty of Silver here than at preſent; all our Payments for the Produce of the Northern Colonies are made in Specie; and our Currency, as you will imagine, has been conſiderably reduced; notwithſtanding which, ſcarce a Veſſel departs either for England or the Continent, without having great Quantities of Dollars ſhipped on board, which plainly demonſtrates how vaſtly beneficial, with regard to Trade, our late Connections with the Havannah have been, and at the ſame Time our Loſs, or rather Infatuation to give it up,—It was, whilſt in our Hands, like Solomon's Land of Ophir, to theſe Iſlands."

NEW-YORK, January 30.

The State of the Commerce of this Continent, is of univerſal Concern to its Inhabitants; at preſent it is in a languiſhing Condition; our Debt in Europe increaſes; our Power to pay it off decreaſes. To find out the Cauſes, and point out a Remedy for this growing Evil, is an Object of the moſt ſerious Conſideration to every Friend to Great-Britain and North-America; for which End, the Merchants of this City gave public Notice to aſſemble on Friday laſt, at Mr. Burns's Long Room, where a very conſiderable Body of them met, and appointed a Committee to prepare a Memorial to the Legiſlature of this Province, repreſenting the Decline of Trade, and the Diſtreſſes of the Merchants and Traders of this City, praying an Interpoſition with the Parliament of Great-Britain; And as every Gentleman who is a Friend to the Trade of our Mother Country, or has Property in this Province, will deem himſelf intereſted in the Succeſs of this Undertaking, it is hoped that they will contribute thereto, by furniſhing ſuch Materials as they may think proper to [illegible] the Committee, by a Direction to the Province Arms, where they will be gratefully received by the Committee, who will [illegible] Evening [illegible] of which the Public will take Notice.

Head Quarters, New-York, January 5, 1764.

His Majeſty has been graciouſly pleaſed to ſignify to the Commander in Chief his Royal Approbation of the Conduct and Bravery of Colonel BOUQUET, and his Officers, and the Troops under his Command, in the two Attacks on the 5th and 6th of Auguſt, in which, notwithſtanding the many Circumſtances of Difficulty and Diſtreſs they laboured under, they repelled and defeated the repeated Attacks of the Indians, and conducted their Convoy ſafe to Fort Pitt."

Two Companies of New-York Provincials marched for Albany on the 24th of laſt Month, and a Third Company on the 8th of this Month; all raiſed in this City, and Places adjacent. They are picked Men, fit for the moſt alert Service, and are cloathed in a ſuitable Manner. We are likewiſe informed, that two other Companies, raiſing in Albany and Dutcheſs County, were lately ſo near being filled, that there is no Doubt they are by this Time compleated, and will make a fine Battalion.

Feb. 2. We hear from Prince Town, in New-Jerſey, that laſt Week a Room in the College there, was by ſome Accident ſet on Fire, and cauſed an Alarm, but was extinguiſhed without doing any Damage except in that Room. We hear each of the Rooms in this College are ſeparated by a Brick Wall, which is not cover'd by Wainſcot or any Wood Work, ſo that a Fire in any of the Rooms cannot ſpread to the reſt except by burning through the Floor to the Room beneath.

We are informed the following Premiums are intended for the Year 1764, by ſeveral of the Northern Colonies.

N. B. The Candidates for theſe Premiums will be at Liberty to ſell their Goods to the beſt Advantage.

Inſtead [illegible] a Bounty will be granted (equal to the Duties impoſed) on foreign Sugar and Molaſſes, which ſhall be purchaſed with our Lumber, the other Produce of our Lands, and Employment of our Shipping, chargeable on a Duty to be levied on Sugar, Rum and Molaſſes from the Britiſh Iſlands; as the Value of Lumber in any Country in the Univerſe would not afford a double Freight (were our Shipping to return empty) of Conſequence the vaſt Quantity of Timber we have, would be, in a great Meaſure uſeleſs to us, and be of no Inconvenience to foreign Iſlands, where they have in general abundance of Cedar and Mahogany Timber of the beſt Kind; ours rots there in 5 or 10 Years.

We hear alſo, a Duty is to be impoſed on all Britiſh Woollen and Linen Manufactures, ſufficient to pay the Charges of Government, and the Officers of the Crown; alſo, the extraordinary Expences we have been at during the late War, which have not been allowed us by Britain.

That the Provinces will make Flour, Lumber, and other Produce of our Lands, a legal Tender, in the ſame Manner as Tobacco in Virginia or Maryland (our Silver and Gold being all gone to England, and no Means left of procuring more.) By this Means we may in Time be able to pay a Debt of Four Millions, at leaſt of Sterling Money, which the northern Provinces now owe to Great-Britain, without which (as the great Means of making Remittances are cut off) it will be impoſſible for us to pay; but it may be our Fifty-Six good Friends, the Weſt India Planters, in the Parliament of England, will be pleaſed to propoſe a Scheme to pay it for us.

PHILADELPHIA, February 9.

Extract of a Letter from Carliſle, Jan. 24, 1764.

"From Fort Frederick there is Advice, which, I think, may be depended on, of a Party of Indians having lately been down on Patterſon's Creek, in Virginia, and driving off a Number of Horſes and Hogs, but happily none of the Inhabitants fell into their Hands.—A Number of Families are again returned to their Dwellings in Shearman's Valley, and ſome of them begin to talk of putting in Spring Crops in thoſe Parts, being in great Hopes that ſome vigorous Meaſures will be taken againſt the Savages in the Summer.—Excepting the above-mentioned Incurſion, our Frontier now reſts in Peace, and has done ſo for ſome Time paſt."

WHEREAS the Officers for the Pariſh of St. Margaret's Weſtminſter, in the County of Anne-Arundel, find it expedient to Erect a Church or Chapel of Eaſe in the upper Part of the ſaid Pariſh, where the preſent old Chapel of Eaſe is now ſituate, on the Head of Curtis's Creek, the old One being gone to Decay, and otherwiſe found much too ſmall for the Congregation, conſtantly attending there on Divine Worſhip: Having a Sum of Money in Hand (ſaved from the Vacancy of a Miniſter, for ſome Time after the Death of the late Incumbent, the Rev. Mr. Walter Chalmers,) but much too ſmall to anſwer the Purpoſe. And regarding tenderly the Intereſt of the Inhabitants, moſt of which are in moderate Circumſtances; and further encouraged by the Regard paid to Lotteries in general, leſs laudable in their Intention than the following: They have thought proper to propoſe the Method (to avoid if poſſible an Aſſeſſment) by Way of Lottery, for Raiſing a Sum of Two Hundred and Twenty-five Pounds Current Money for the Purpoſe abovementioned.

MARYLAND, Patowmack Ri
George-Town, Dec. 10, 17

AS I am fully determined on going Home in the Spring 1765, if then alive, in order to make a Settlement with my Employers, Meſſieurs JOHN GLASSFORD and Company, Merchants in GLASGOW, which I cannot accompliſh without making Settlements with my Cuſtomers, I take this Method of informing them, That from the Date I have given up the Management of the Store to Mr. Robert Ferguſon, (who is well known to moſt of them) that I may have it in my Power to attend properly on ſettling all my former Tranſactions, and which I hope I ſhall not be diſappointed to get done againſt the Spring 1765, having got all my Accounts ready for that Purpoſe, I flatter myſelf that none concerned will delay on their Part, for however much I am inclined to be indulgent to thoſe who really have it not in their Power to make Payment ſoon, yet I am under a Neceſſity of requiring, that every Perſon who has open Accounts with me, ſhall make a Settlement of ſuch Accounts, and their doing it ſoon will prevent them from being put to Expences, and me to Trouble in me. The Store at George-Town, on Patowmack River, now under the Management of Mr. Robert Ferguſon, will be ſupplied with Goods, &c. as uſual, and I have got the beſt Grounds of giving Satisfaction to all who are Kind enough to favour him with their Cuſtom, as well to my good old Cuſtomers, as to others who may incline to open a Correſpondence with him. My Intention is to return to George-Town as early in the Year 1766, as I can finiſh the Buſineſs on which I am going Home. All juſt Claims againſt me, whether on Account of the Store, or properly my own Account, ſhall be ſettled before I leave the Province.
